DAY 1 - ACTIVITIES

5:00 – 8:00

TCB

Colombia's national sport, tejo, involves steel projectiles, gunpowder and lots of beer. Players take turns throwing a heavy steel disk, or puck, at a board. There will be triangular paper pouches -- mecha -- which are filled with gunpowder. Hit one of these, and you'll gain three points

Share a traditional Meal, and spend time with the pickers, the kitchen team and make new friends, while drinking delicious local beers.

A WELCOME party, and a good adjustment time.

DAY 2 - FARM WORK

9:00 – 12:30

Scavenger's Hunt for Varietals and chores.

Farmers are hard working people. If you have never seen the efficiency and dedication of a picker, you are in for a surprise. We will wander along the coffee fields in search for stations where different coffee varietals and different chores will be identified and performed (as hands on as you wish to go).

Emphasis on harvesting and farming secrets. You will understand the complexities of the agricultural process, and how history, tradition and passion, build the coffee you drink daily.

DAY 2 - POST HARVESTING

1:45 - 7:00

Creating quality and traceability.

Production is quite complex and hard. We work to produce a great “raw” material. But is here where we start the magical processes of almost “Alchemy's” transformations.

How to choose processes and drying times, are important part of how to modify our coffee profiles. We “modify” our options to fit our clients demands and wishes.
